COUNCIL ELECTIONS THURSDAY 5TH MAY 1994

DURING May the British National Party will be fighting elections all over the country — the most important being in Tower Hamlets, where the Party now has a good chance of winning control of the Isle of Dogs Neighbourhood Council.

The election of BNP councillor Derek Beackon in Millwall last September changed the whole political situation in Britain. For the first time, the BNP is seen as a party which can win elections — not a wasted vote.

MAJOR FORCE

The whole community in East London now know Derek Beackon as the hardest working and most efficient councillor in the area. The BNP need to get more councillors elected on 5th of May to establish the Party as a major force in Britain, which the whole country will then know is unstoppable.

Nowhere is this more important than the Isle of Dogs in London. The voters who elected Councillor

Beackon last September will now have the opportunity to choose THREE British National Party councillors — giving the BNP control of the Neighbourhood Council!

The BNP has received messages of support from all over the world following last September's victory. "Keep fighting! Keep winning! Your fight for Britain is an inspiration to white people everywhere!" That is what they say.

MAKE HISTORY

The People of the Isle of Dogs have the chance to create a national sensation again, by electing three BNP councillors, and giving the BNP the chance to prove it can run things better than the old parties.

We say to Britons everywhere: Vote BNP on 5th May. Give Britain and the British people a voice!

AVOID CHEAP IMITATIONS

SINCE the BNP's stunning victory in Millwall last September, all sorts of crack-pots and has-beens have tried to jump on the 'protest' bandwagon.

On closer inspection, most of these 'new patriots' turn out to be former members of the discredited old parties. Failed ex-Labour candidates James Hunt and Ted Johns formed an outfit calling itself the 'East London People's Alliance'. This is in fact just a watered down version of the Labour Party.

Meanwhile, a bunch of ex-Tories have formed the so-called 'New Britain Party'. The patriotic-sounding title is completely bogus, and the new 'party' doesn't even have a manifesto.

The official Labour and Liberal Parties have each split wide open over the 'race' issue, and both have expelled several of their own councillors and members following 'anti-racist' witch-hunts.

It's rather like the situation in Eastern Europe, where discredited old communists are changing the names of their parties in a desperate attempt to make themselves look more 'democratic'.

The names may have changed, but they still have the same old faces and worn-out slogans.

To avoid any future disappointment, our advice is: Vote for the genuine article — the BNP — and don't accept these inferior copies.

Hard work — and more hard work!

BNP COUNCILLOR Derek Beackon (Right) has become the most popular man on the Isle of Dogs since last September's election.

PART OF THE COMMUNITY

He can be seen every day travelling around the Island to see local people about their problems. Nearly everyone seems to know him personally. Wherever he goes, people wave, toot their car horns in support, or shake his hand. The Islanders at last have a councillor who is part of the community — and not just seen at election time.

The Isle of Dogs has had years of extreme left-wing Labour councils who have deliberately put white people to the back of the housing queue and driven away jobs. Following 'anti-racist' witch-hunts by their leaders, both the Labour and Liberal parties in Tower Hamlets have split up and expelled several of their own councillors, who are now standing against their former colleagues. It doesn't really matter, because all their policies are the same anyway.

As Councillor Beackon says: "We need three BNP councillors on the Island. Then we can really get to work to rebuild the shattered community. Labour and Liberals won't do it. They've been in power for years, and all they care about is 'political correctness.' We all know what that means. If you're white you come last."

Islanders could make political history!

BNP victory now on the cards...

LAST September the people of Millwall caused a political earthquake by electing the first ever BNP councillor.

This time there are three BNP candidates on the Isle of Dogs, and if all of them are elected, the BNP will gain control of the Island's neighbourhood council.

This will mean the BNP controlling the entire housing budget for the Island, and the Party would have the power to stop outsiders being given priority in housing. The BNP would also be able to abolish Labour's 'anti-racist' projects, and instead create REAL jobs for local people.

The article above from the Eastside Digest suggests the BNP has a good chance of winning all three seats on the Isle of Dogs. If this happens, it will create a national sensation even greater than when Derek Beackon was first elected. Canvassing returns show support for the BNP has considerably increased since the famous victory in Millwall last September. After years of misrule by Labour's militant Hard Left, it seems local whites on the Island want to give the BNP a chance to prove it can run things properly.

Labour and the Lib Dems are now privately admitting there is a strong chance the BNP will win. They are using every dirty trick in the book to cling to power. Since the BNP victory last September, Labour has encouraged over SEVEN HUNDRED Asians to register as electors on the Isle of Dogs. But the overwhelming majority of whites support the BNP. ● LIB/LAB DIRTY TRICKS — PAGE SIX

COULD THE BNP FLAG FLY ON ISLAND'S MUNICIPAL OFFICES?

The outcome of the Isle of Dogs local elections plunged into the melting pot with the resignations of the two leading officials of the Island's Labour Party.

Secretary, Kathy McLaaney and Chairman, Sandra Ireland resigned after Labour's Hard Left tried to dump moderate candidate, James Hunt who lost the seat to the British National Party.

It was followed by an astonishing statement from their hated enemy, Britain's only elected BNP councillor, Derek Beackon. In an exclusive interview with Digest he revealed his master plan to control the Island's £22M budget and thousands of council-owned homes.

"The BNP will have three good candidates in the field for the May local government elections. I am confident we will get enough votes to take over the Island."

"Support for our policy of providing homes for the sons and daughters of Islanders has grown in the months since I was elected."

"Divisions in the other parties are helping us at this stage, but everywhere people are pledging their support when I explain calmly what our housing policies will be."

"The opposition is talking about Rights for Whites, but we are promising to make sure the sons and daughters of Labour's ethnic quotas policies, they have been forced to move away from their families into other parts of London. That is wrong and, as I believe in the working class, we will change the housing policy," he added.

With democracy suspended in the Isle of Dogs and a ban on local council members holding their 'surgery' on council-owned property, the BNP councillor has taken to the streets.

"I have been welcomed in dozens of homes where I am able to see voters personally. Everybody is fed up with the Hard Left Labour and their housing policy. I have nothing against blacks and Asians, and they will decide who to vote for the same way as everybody else."

Each voter has three votes in the local elections and can allocate any number of them on a one vote per candidate basis. The BNP could finish up with its three candidates in Millwall Ward controlling the free council-owned Isle of Dogs Neighbourhood with its upmarket waterside homes, upgraded council houses and glittering office developments like Canary Wharf.

When the Hard Left gained control they moved into a £4M new town hall, providing by the LDDC — and promptly renamed it Jack Dash House, after a docks hero.

There would, apparently, be nothing to stop the BNP retaining the place. Oswald Mosley House, a higher-profile for area, the media is already calling the Fascist Capital of England.

The rising strength of the BNP and split in the Millwall Labour Party was forecast in Digest 22.

The resignation of the group's two top people came only weeks after a "Whiteslash" inquest on the election defeat which blamed the candidate not the policies.

James Hunt sided with local voters who revolted against the housing policies of the controlling Hard Left Labour councillors, which appeared to favour homeless Bengalis in housing allocations.

But the switch came too late as the BNP moved in to exploit the gaping credibility gap with angry voters, who had always been traditional Labour.

The ethnic quotas policy was first exposed in Digest and resulted in moderate-minded the Millwall hardliners.

But there was not enough time to prove their new housing policy before an Autumn by-election allowed BNP candidate Derek Beackon to get the same message across for his party.

Furious Left-wingers turned on Labour's leader: "I wear a suit, have a job and own my own home, and could therefore be expected to upset them anyway" — and tried to press a vote of no confidence in him.

The moderate officials resigned in protest making it clear the race issue was the chief cause of the split.

Jack Dash House, Municipal HQ of the Isle of Dogs. Could it become Oswald Mosley House if the BNP gets its three candidates elected in May?

LABOUR PAIR QUIT OVER RACE POLICY

The rising strength of the BNP and split in the Millwall Labour Party was forecast in Digest 22.

British
NationalistNo.142 APRIL 1994
Editor: John MorseHOW YOU CAN HELP MAKE HISTORY

BARELY six months ago, in a historic by-election at Millwall, Tower Hamlets, Derek Beackon became the first British National Party councillor in Britain.

In the short period since then, Cllr Beackon has proved not only the most popular councillor in the borough, but also the most hard-working. Derek Beackon has helped more LOCAL people find homes in the Isle of Dogs than most of the other councillors put together.

Unlike most Labour and Liberal councillors, Derek Beackon doesn't drive around in a flashy car or live in a Yuppie apartment on the edge of the Island. He's right in among the local people he's lived with all his life.

Now the people of the Isle of Dogs have got the chance to REALLY make history, by re-electing Cllr Beackon and electing two more of his BNP colleagues to serve on the council. If all three candidates are elected, the BNP will control the Isle of Dogs Neighbourhood, and we can ensure that no more homes will be given to outsiders. The LOCAL people of the Island, and their children, will be given automatic first priority in local housing.

The people of the Isle of Dogs could really make political history this time, by allowing the BNP to prove that we can run a neighbourhood for the benefit of LOCAL people instead of outsiders.

The 'ethnic quotas' policy of Labour's Hard Left has simply meant thousands of third world immigrants flooding into the Island. Labour want more immigrants because it gives them cheap votes — but the BNP believe LOCAL people should come first.

Labour's record is so bad that Islanders have got nothing to lose by voting BNP. We say: Give the BNP the chance to prove we can do a better job than Labour!

IT'S YOUR CHOICE...

To help you make up your mind on 5th May, we compare the main policies of the British National Party with those of the Lib/Lab/Con parties...

BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY

JOHN TYNDALL
BNP LeaderDEREK BEACKON
British National Party councillor

ZERO UNEMPLOYMENT

By revitalising the economy, repatriating immigrants and selectively banning imports, the British National Party can promise zero unemployment within months of forming a government. The BNP is the only party committed to permanent full employment.

ZERO HOMELESSNESS

The British National Party believes native British families should go straight to the front of the housing queue. By stopping immigration and creating full employment, the BNP will ensure no British person need ever be homeless again.

ZERO IMMIGRATION

The BNP's policy of phased repatriation for immigrants will mean automatic full employment and an end to homelessness. Think about the arithmetic: If just three million immigrants were to leave Britain, there would be three million less people competing for jobs. The simple fact is, Britain just can't afford to import mass unemployment from the third world.

RIGHTS FOR WHITES

The British National Party will put a stop to the £billion-a-year 'race relations' industry for which the British taxpayer is footing the bill. We will stop left-wing 'anti-racists' brainwashing our school children; instead, we will teach our kids to be proud to be British. We will abolish all 'race relations' laws that make certain jobs and houses available only to non-whites. And yes — we will make golliwogs legal again!

SMASH THE I.R.A.

The BNP will smash the IRA and its Sinn Fein apologists within 48 hours of coming to power. We will order the Army, SAS and other branches of the security forces to hunt down and exterminate all known terrorists. If the IRA want war, we'll give them war — we are not interested in appeasing terrorists who kill our children. The only argument the IRA understand is the power of the gun.

CRACK DOWN ON CRIME

The British National Party will restore capital punishment for crimes of murder, particularly for those who rape and kill children. We will bring back the birch for vicious muggers, hooligans and joyriders, and stiffer prison sentences for other violent offenders.

OUTLAW HOMOSEXUALITY

The BNP believes homosexuality should be outlawed, to prevent the further spread of AIDS and to protect our young people from corruption. For the same reason, we would also ban pornography.

WITHDRAW FROM THE E.E.C.

A BNP Government would withdraw from the Common Market and rebuild trading links with the White Commonwealth.

LIB/LAB/CON PARTIES

PADDY PAINSDOWN

JOHN SMITH

JOHN MAJOR

Collectively known as the Three Stooges of British Politics

MASS UNEMPLOYMENT

By their economic mismanagement, the Lib/Lab/Con parties have put three million on the dole — and the real figure is more like four million. Their policies of mass immigration and cheap foreign imports are making it impossible for British workers to find jobs.

MASS HOMELESSNESS

The Lib/Lab/Con parties have made it compulsory for local councils to house foreign 'refugees' before native British people. Their failed economic policies have meant nearly 70,000 British families are having their homes repossessed each year.

MASS IMMIGRATION

All the Lib/Lab/Con parties have favoured mass immigration since the war. No one knows how many alien immigrants and their descendants are currently living in Britain, because the Lib/Lab/Con parties have refused to publish the true figures, and have stifled all debate on the subject. According to ethnic pressure group Black Pages, the number of non-whites in Britain is now seven million.

'MULTI-RACIAL SOCIETY'

The Lib/Lab/Con parties believe white British people are 'racist' and that we must change our traditional way of life to suit immigrants. Multi-racial brainwashing ranges from the merely unpleasant (banning of golliwogs, etc) to the downright vicious: British people are currently being jailed simply for publishing opinions on race. Our children are now being indoctrinated at school and via the media into adopting alien lifestyles.

APPEASE THE I.R.A.

All the Lib/Lab/Con parties are soft on terrorism. IRA violence has frightened them into agreeing that Ulster should eventually be handed over to Dublin, despite the fact that the overwhelming majority there want to remain part of Britain. While British and Irish children were being murdered over the past year, John Major has been secretly negotiating surrender terms with the terrorists.

SOFT ON CRIME

All the Lib/Lab/Con parties favour 'liberal' soft policies for dealing with criminals — even for child-murderers, rapists and terrorists. Despite overwhelming public support for bringing back the rope, the Lib/Lab/Con politicians arrogantly say they know best.

GAY SEX AT 16

The Lib/Lab/Con parties have legalised queer sex at 18, and are now pressing for it to be practised by 16-year-olds. They have also legalised the disgusting trade in pornography.

MORE POWER TO BRUSSELS

The Lib/Lab/Con parties have steadily handed British sovereignty to the Common Market, most recently via the Maastricht treaty.

Don't waste your vote on the discredited old parties, use it to support the BNP — Britain's fastest-growing political party!

CORRUPTION, CRIMINALITY AND PERVERSION

ESTABLISHMENT politicians are fond of describing BNP patriots as 'criminals'. But behind the 'respectable' mask of Liberal, Labour and Conservative politics there is a dark, hidden world of corruption, sexual perversion and downright criminality. It's a world the discredited old parties would prefer to keep covered up — but as the latest round of metropolitan council elections approaches, we believe the public has a right to know what kind of people are involved in Establishment politics...

LABOUR COUNCILLOR JAILED FOR FRAUD

A DISGRACED Labour councillor has been running Derbyshire County Council's finance committee from a prison cell while serving a jail sentence for fiddling his council expenses.

Sean Stafford has just signed the council's annual accounts from his prison cell, and was still being paid £3,700 a year in council allowances because of a bizarre legal loophole.

ARROGANT

Arrogant Stafford stood as a candidate in the General Election two years ago, against a BNP opponent. He ungraciously refused to shake hands with the BNP man on the platform after the election, which Stafford lost to the Tories.

Because he lodged an appeal against his sentence, Stafford was able to continue his council activities from his jail cell. Shocked Derbyshire rate-payers are now demanding a change in the law to prevent such conduct being allowed in the future.

Stafford is by no means the first Labour councillor to be imprisoned for fiddling. In 1992, Labour councillor Shaukat Khan, the first Asian sheriff of Nottingham, was jailed for fraud.

FAT RASCAL: Labour councillor Sean Stafford signed Derbyshire's annual accounts from his jail cell!

Labour man jailed for raping 10-year-old girl

LABOUR claims to be 'tough' on crime, but the Party ought to get more tough about the kind of low-life it recruits.

Labour official John Johnson,

46, of Billingham, Cleveland, was a 'respectable' pillar of the left-wing community. When not out canvassing for socialist votes, he was serving as a magistrate.

But last year he was himself up before the beak, charged with raping a ten-year-old girl and indecently assaulting a nine-year-old during sex attacks spanning nearly twenty years.

Mr Justice Wright jailed him for seven years at Teeside Crown Court, telling him: "You betrayed the law you swore to uphold."

It is no coincidence that most of the support for the recent bill for gay sex at sixteen came from the Labour benches. Labour is riddled with queers and openly champions homosexual 'rights'.

What about the rights of ordinary, decent folk to be protected from these perverts? Labour is rather less outspoken on that.

But then, there is not so much political capital to be made out of defending the rights of ordinary, normal people.

Government employs illegal migrants

DESPITE the Tories' bogus 'tough' stance on immigration, the flow of immigrants — both legal and illegal — into Britain is as strong as ever.

British Nationalist can even reveal that Government departments are themselves recruiting illegal immigrants as workers — despite Britain's massive unemployment problem.

SUSPECTED ILLEGALS

Immigration officers uncovered more than twenty suspected illegals working at Queen Anne's Gate, the headquarters of the Home Office — the department supposedly controlling immigration!

Plans to launch a raid to round up further suspects have been suspended, amid fears that such a high profile operation might embarrass ministers.

A similar operation aimed at left-wing Lambeth council failed, after suspects fled following a tip-off.

Meanwhile, the Government's Benefits Agency, which is responsible for assessing social security payments, has also been discovered to be employing illegal migrants.

Two Nigerians copped £16,000 a year jobs working as Executive Officers. They were there almost a year before fleeing the country following a tip-off.

The man, named as Oli Oni, and a woman accomplice were taken on to boost the Agency's 'ethnic representation'. One immigration officer working on the case commented: "I couldn't believe it. No one is allowed to work with only a holiday visa. The fact that they couldn't provide their National Insurance numbers should have rung a few alarm bells. What is worrying is that these people might have had friends who were also on holiday here and arranged for them to defraud the system by gaining illegal benefits."

The fact is, this Government is so terrified of being called 'racist' that it prefers to allow widespread abuses of the system rather than risk losing the ethnic vote by cracking down on illegal immigrants.

AT LARGE

Since the death of illegal immigrant Joy Gardner, hundreds of illegal immigrants are being allowed to remain at large.

Police are refusing to arrest them for fear of being made scapegoats if anything goes wrong.

Gardner died after an accidental head injury during a violent struggle with police officers arresting her. The fifteen-stone woman bit one of the officers on the arm, whereupon they quite lawfully and properly taped her mouth to prevent her injuring herself and anyone else.

Three police officers were

ILLEGAL immigrant Joy Gardner died accidentally during a violent struggle with police who were trying to deport her suspended and told they could face manslaughter charges over the affair, much to the anger of their colleagues.

A senior officer in the Metropolitan Police Aliens Unit said: "We've now been told by our superiors to forget chasing illegal immigrants. There's paranoia over the death of Joy Gardner. We're letting illegals roam free and they know it. That's why so many are trying to get into Britain at the moment."

The Government has good reason to avoid offending ethnic minorities. It is likely the Tories will be trounced in the Metropolitan council elections in May, and so they are desperate to woo the 'ethnic vote'.

But this is likely to alienate white voters. In a recent ICM/Sunday Express poll, eighty-one per cent of people said they were 'concerned' about immigration, with thirty-six per cent favouring compulsory repatriation.

The REAL scandal is how the Lib/Lab/Con-men ever get to be elected in the first place!

IT'S NOT JUST the Labour Party that is founded on disgusting hypocrisy and lies. There are plenty of crooks, bullies and perverts in the Liberal Democrat and Conservative parties, as the reports below prove only too well. And remember, the scandals that come to light are only the tip of the iceberg...

LIB DEM COUNCILLOR JAILED FOR EVICTION

ALL too often we see slimy, holier-than-thou Liberal politicians on the box spouting about 'defending the rights' of their constituents.

But just occasionally, the 'caring' mask slips and we get a glimpse of the real values of these left-wing hypocrites.

JAILED

John O'Connell, 38, a Liberal Democrat councillor was jailed for nine months at the Old Bailey recently after unlawfully evicting a mother and baby from his own property and then trying to cover it up. He was convicted of attempting to pervert the course of justice.

O'Connell, a member of Spelthorne council, Middlesex, cut of the young mother's power and water, changed the locks and dumped her belongings. He then tried to get the woman's boyfriend to lie on his behalf when he faced prosecution by his own council.

Ironically, O'Connell was a member of his council's Housing Committee at the time. His behaviour gives some idea of the Lib Dems' enlightened policy on dealing with vulnerable homeless people.

Tory scandals will not easily be forgotten

THE TORIES have been rocked by so many disgraceful scandals in recent months that no decent, law abiding citizen should ever vote for them again.

What we should all remember is that these revolting and bizarre scandals are just the tip of the iceberg of sleaze on which the Tory Party is built.

REPULSIVE

In our opinion, what was far more repulsive than MP Stephen Milligan's private, sordid activities, was the public support for homosexuality by the likes of Tory MP Edwina Curry. Apparently, the Tories, along with their Labour and Liberal Democrat allies, were keen to allow queers to bugger sixteen-year-old boys. It is well known that leading Lib/Lab/Con politicians are practising queers, and relish the idea of carrying out their revolting perversions with young boys. Sensing the tide of outrage from members of the public, MP's decided on a compromise of eighteen. But no doubt, when the fuss has died down, the age of consent will be quietly reduced still further. Perhaps Parliament will not be satisfied until we have adopted the laws of 'liberal' Holland, where perverts are allowed to have sex with 12-year-old children.

PUBLIC PURSE

The Tories have always claimed to be the party that safeguards the public purse. This seems rather ironic in the wake of such fiascos as the ERM withdrawal, the recession, the pit closures and other policies which have caused the loss of untold billions of pounds of British taxpayers' money.

But the antics of Tory Westminster council were so outrageous that even the Establishment was shocked. District auditor John Magill described the actions of the Tory councillors as

FOLLOWING the bizarre sex-death of Tory MP Stephen Milligan, the Tories attempted to pass a bill to allow homosexuals to sodomise sixteen-year-old boys. So much for their "back to basics" policy

"disgraceful, unlawful, unauthorised and improper."

Dame Shirley Porter and eight other Tory councillors now face a lifetime ban from office and a surcharge of £21million between them.

Lady Porter first proved her business acumen almost five years ago with the sale of three of Westminster's municipal cemeteries to a Panamanian speculator, for just fifteen pence. After a public outcry, the council was forced to buy them back — for £4.25million.

The next scam was to sell Westminster council houses at knock-down prices, in order to buy the loyalty (and votes) of new homeowners. This cost the rate-payers an estimated £21million.

WE SAY: CRACK DOWN ON CRIME!

THE DAYS of Dixon of Dock Green (Right) are long since over. Thanks to the incompetence of successive Lib/Lab/Con governments, Britain's inner cities are now infested with heavily-armed drug dealers, vicious rape-gangs and other sub-human low-life who are able to operate with little fear of being caught or punished for their crimes. The BNP would like to see the return of the death penalty for murder, and much stronger prison sentences for the vicious rapists, muggers and hooligans who prey on British society.

Sex-attack on woman, 83

A VICIOUS sex-attacker pounced on an 83-year-old woman just after Christmas — then left her for dead.

The frail spinster spent two days locked in her wardrobe without food or water, and was found on the brink of death when relatives called on a Christmas visit.

The woman was sexually assaulted by the thug during a burglary at her home in Southwark, south London. Police are seeking a "tall black man" in relation to the incident, but have few other leads to go on.

Ex-Kray twins associate Tony Lambrianou, who knows the victim, said: "Whoever did this needs a bloody good hiding."

We couldn't agree more. In fact, under a British National Party government such fiends would face the death penalty for such a vicious attack on a defenceless old woman. This attack is just one of hundreds which occur every year thanks to the government's weakness on law and order.

REMEMBER the horror and outrage a couple of years ago when a New York 'wilding' gang raped a middle class white woman and left her for dead? This kind of attack is increasingly happening in Britain, and in fact has become so commonplace that it barely rates a mention in even the local press. On this page we highlight the appalling attack on two schoolgirls in Catford, but there are many more victims whose ordeals go largely unreported in the official press...

'Wilding' gangs can now strike at will...

BRITAIN'S womenfolk are becoming the victims of a new kind of vicious sport known as 'wilding'.

The appalling attack on two schoolgirls in Catford is reported elsewhere on this page. Gang-rapes are apparently becoming more and more common on Britain's streets, and the rapists are becoming increasingly brazen in their disregard for the law.

HIGH ON CRACK

Many 'wilding' gang members are thought to be high on crack or glue-sniffing when they set out on their violent sprees. The gangs randomly target members of the public for horrific rapes or beatings.

One such attack occurred in January this year in a quiet East London street. A three-man gang in a transit van grabbed a 28-year-old woman as she walked to a chip shop off Homerton High Street.

PHOTOFIT of one of the sex-attack suspects

They threw the victim onto a mattress and tried to rape her, but eventually threw her out of the van when she continued to struggle and scream for help. The thugs failed to rape the victim, but they ripped her clothes off and committed a number of indecent assaults. Although the three sex-attackers were described as black, they were not thought to be connected with the Catford rapists.

Police believe the trio may be prowling the East End with the van specially kitted out for such an attack.

ASSAULTS

Successive Lib/Lab/Con governments have refused to take rape seriously. There are men walking the streets today who have committed the most brutal and revolting assaults against our womenfolk. The victims of rape are condemned to a life sentence of misery, while the rapists themselves often escape with no more than a fine or community service.

The British National Party is committed to imposing much heavier prison sentences for rapists. We believe British women have the right to be protected from this kind of vicious sexual abuse.

What about THESE 'racial attacks'?

LIB/LAB/CON politicians never stop telling us about 'racial attacks' — meaning white-against-black assaults. In fact, most such assaults are against WHITES — but because white people are not considered a 'racial minority', attacks against white victims are rarely recorded as racially motivated. It is politically much more convenient to ignore white victims, and concentrate on the much smaller number of 'attacks' against blacks. When did you last hear of 'anti-racist' organisations campaigning on behalf of John Stoner, Paul Carter, Philip Gosling or scores of other whites killed or seriously injured by attacks that were allegedly racist? If we are to record 'racial attacks' against non-whites, is it not only fair to record such attacks against whites?

THIRTEEN-year-old Philip Gosling was the only white pupil in his class at Handsworth Wood Boys School, Birmingham.

In fact, he was one of only five white pupils in the whole school of over five hundred.

Now Philip is dead. Police are investigating claims that he was being chased by racial bullies when he ran into the path of a van outside the school. In the past, he had been burned on the neck with a match and threatened with a knife.

Philip's mother, Mrs Fay Gosling, said her son was being bullied by an Asian gang shortly before he ran into the road and was struck by the van. She commented: "They bullied him because he was the only white kid in the class. The van driver said he saw a scuffle before Philip ran into the road in front of him."

Philip's school was in the notorious Handsworth area of Birmingham, where vicious race-riots began in the 1980s. Eighty per cent of the school was Asian, with ten per cent of Afro-

Caribbean origin, one per cent white and the rest a mixture of Chinese and other ethnic groups.

What is extraordinary about Philip's death is the deafening silence on the part of the 'anti-racist' industry. Imagine if the victim had been black or Asian, and whites were blamed for the attack. We would have seen mass demonstrations, race riots, communist thugs burning the union flag, and politicians on television promising more millions of pounds for their friends in the 'anti-racist' industry.

ESTABLISHMENT

Instead, we heard absolutely nothing. The truth is, that 'racism' by non-whites does not fit the carefully-constructed fantasy world of the political Establishment.

In their view, it is only whites who are 'racist', and we need to be 're-educated' by constant brainwashing from the cradle to the grave. But in the nightmare world of multi-racialism, logic and common sense are far less important than political point-scoring.

VICTIM Philip Gosling — his mother says Asian race bullies were responsible for his death

CATFORD RAPE-GANG: STILL NO ARRESTS

Police "playing down racial aspect"

THE POLICE are still no nearer to solving the horrifying gang-rape case reported in BN last month.

Two girls, aged fourteen and fifteen, were set upon by a thirty-strong rape-gang outside a McDonalds restaurant on a busy high street. It was 7.45pm on the night before Christmas Eve, and the streets were crowded with shoppers. The girls were frog-marched into an alley by the gang and repeatedly raped for about twenty minutes. About seven of the youths raped them while the rest cheered them on. It is now highly unlikely the gang will be caught.

Very few official newspapers reported the full facts of the case, and the item was quickly dropped from TV and radio bulletins. The reason? According to a report on the inside pages of the Observer (26.12.93), "The case is a sensitive one for the police because the victims are white, the rapists black." The report went on to say: "Detectives are playing down the racial aspect, claiming it was not a racially motivated attack."

Yet many locals believe it was racially motivated, according to the same report, which said a number of blacks had received "real hassle" from local whites in the days following the attack. So why did most of the big-circulation dailies choose not to even mention the race of the victims and attackers?

It well may be that race had nothing to do with this particular attack, but that is equally true of scores of celebrated 'racial attacks' taken up by the 'anti-racist' industry. Many non-white victims of street violence have been labelled as 'racial attack victims' even where the motive has not been proved one way or the other. Surely, the public should have a right to the facts in order to make up its mind.

TWO girls were brutally gang-raped only yards from this busy shopping street in Catford. There is little chance that the subhuman thugs responsible will ever be caught

RACIAL ATTACK: This letter from the Lancashire Evening Telegraph (16.06.93) gives the lie to media propaganda about racial attacks being perpetrated only by whites. Left-wing 'anti-racists' never make a fuss when whites are the victims of racial attacks, simply because there is not the same amount of political mileage to be gained

My story: One son of mine told a Muslim Asian off for using abusive language to an old white man.

Details

Later my son was caught and beaten up by a gang of 15 Muslims. (I use the word Muslim in order not to be racist.)

They found out where we lived, my car had its windscreen smashed by them, my pregnant wife was hit in the stomach and told she was having "another white..."

We were harassed for almost two months by

Terror tactics from gangs

them and finally my car was stolen.

You say "disadvantaged" — yet they came in cars — BMW, Cavalier and Toyota van — all less than two years old.

My story is not alone. Many families in this area have had similar treatment. I have all the details written down — police calls, dates, times. I have much more on my own case.

Instead of saying Asian Muslims, I could have said Martians in order not to offend, but then you would laugh, and it is no laughing matter.

I speak of what I know to be true. If you can prevent this — the police can't — what have you to say?

I am not in Hitler's Germany, I am not in South Africa, I am not a member of the KGB and my story is no trick.

What I want to know is why you do not report about Asian Muslims who gang up and attack individuals white people, armed with bats and hockey sticks.

Rights

I presume they are allowed to get away with impunity — they did in my case. When is someone going to start printing the truth?

County Councillor Louise Eilman, you certainly do not know the truth.

These so-called minorities have rights above our countrymen. A ROBINSON, Leeds Road, Nelson.

CRAZY BRITAIN...

WELCOME to crazy Britain. While millions of British people rot on the dole, and thousands lose their homes through repossession, the Tory Government tells us we must accept yet more third world 'refugees'. As public spending is squeezed ever tighter, the Government dishes out hundreds of thousands of pounds in race discrimination compensation. The race relations industry is worth £1 billion annually. As AIDS becomes a nationwide epidemic and young children are increasingly at risk from sex perverts, the Government says we must lower the 'age of consent' for queers to sixteen. YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE CRAZY TO LIVE HERE BUT IT HELPS...

£20,000 bonanza for 'race discrimination victim'

A BLACK social worker suspended on full pay for two years has been given a £20,000 pay-off after his council bosses were found guilty of 'racial discrimination'.

Errol Clarke, 35, of Normanton, Derby, is believed to have accepted about £20,000 as severance pay plus settlement of outstanding industrial tribunal actions.

An industrial tribunal ruled Clarke had been discriminated against for promotion while working at a children's home in Derbyshire. He was suspended from his job in July 1991 after complaining to a tribunal. He was again suspended in October 1991 after being charged with rape. Despite winning his court case, he was disciplined at a social services hearing over alleged comments made in court, but in July 1992 an appeal panel quashed the disciplinary action.

SUSPENSION

On top of his £20,000 pay-off for the 'discrimination' case, Clarke had already been paid over £20,000 for staying at home during his suspension from work. He is now employed as a social worker in a London children's home.

Derbyshire rate-payers will be picking up the tab for this case.

ERROL Clarke claimed he suffered 'racial discrimination', and was awarded £20,000

The 'racial attack' that never was Two Asian men charged with arson

THE CLIMATE of hysteria which has been generated by the media and politicians over so-called 'racial attacks' has now reached the point where the publicity is actually fuelling such attacks.

YET another Chief Constable launches 'anti-racist' crusade (Above). Newspaper headlines (Right) scream about 'racism' — but it's always directed against the white community

Just for the record, a 'racial attack' as defined by left-wing police chiefs and media pundits can include anything from a verbal comment upwards.

'ATTACK'

Some neo-communist Labour politicians have even claimed that receiving a BNP election leaflet through your letter box constitutes a 'racial attack'.

The truth is that 'racial attacks' against non-whites are extremely rare — but the exaggerated publicity that surrounds those that do occur is very useful politically to Lib/Lab/Con politicians who rely on the black or Asian vote to stay in power.

The Old Bailey heard last month that two Asian men were so determined that a 'racial attack' should take place in their neighbourhood that they went out and petrol bombed a fellow Asian family.

POLICE TO CRACK DOWN ON RACISM

By PETER LAZENBY
POLICE in West Yorkshire are to crack down on racial harassment within their own ranks.

RACE ABUSE FACES BLITZ
More than 21 incidents of racial abuse and harassment have been reported in the area this year. Nearly half have happened in Harrogate and Rotherham. They include threats, graffiti and damage to homes. Now police are encouraging victims to help them trace those responsible. A new leaflet on racial harassment is being made available at all police stations. Victims will be encouraged to report incidents and we have agreed these numbers below. Mr Hollowell said nearly 100 incidents had been reported since the leaflet was first issued. — West Yorkshire Police

SOFT-TOUCH BRITAIN DOES IT AGAIN

Mr and Mrs Su Quoc Phan, with some of their TEN children

SU QUOC PHAN, a Vietnamese father of ten, is enjoying life in Britain.

Since arriving here 13 years ago, he has not needed to work, because, as he explains: "In this country it is an easy life. The Government has money to give my children everything they need, including a free house because I am out of work. The people who come from Vietnam to live in England are very happy."

TOO SMALL

The only problem for Mr Phan was that his luxury four-bedroom council house was too small for twelve people, so he applied for a bigger one. Although there was a long waiting list for five-bedroomed houses, the council were persuaded of the urgency of the case by the fact that the Phans' house recently became haunted by the spirits of their dead ancestors. Labour-run Newham council solved the dilemma by offering the Phan family TWO new houses, with a total of six bedrooms.

The evil spirits, which travelled from Vietnam to Canning Town to haunt Mr Phan, will apparently not be able to find his new address round the corner in Plaistow.

Although jobless for the past 13 years, Mr Phan has a few small luxuries such as an F-registered Ford Sierra, colour TV and video. The family pay just over £2 a week in rent, and receive around £170 a week in benefits.

WELCOMED

Mr Phan served in the communist Viet Cong for some years before joining thousands of 'boat-people' who were welcomed into Britain by Mrs Thatcher in the early 1980's. He says he is "very pleased" with the generosity of the British.

A few months ago we reported the case of Iraqi Fahad al Amri, who along with his two wives and thirteen children was housed by Camden council in adjoining mews houses in the smart district of Little Venice, West London. His weekly rent of £219 was paid by the council, and he received £150 a week income support from the DSS. He too was pleased with the generosity of Britain's social security system, commenting: "I'm trying to get my brother here."

COPS PAY BROADWATER RAID FAMILY £30,000

A BLACK family whose home was raided by the police following the Broadwater Farm riots has been awarded damages of more than £30,000.

Mrs Beverley Scott and sons Millard, 35, and Stafford, 33, claimed to have suffered "anxiety, distress and humiliation" as a result of an armed police raid on their home 11 days after PC Keith Blakelock was hacked to death.

MURDER

Stafford Scott was allegedly told he was suspected of involvement in PC Blakelock's murder, and was ordered to provide samples of blood and saliva for forensic examination. Millard Scott was charged with obstructing a police officer but was later acquitted after claiming the evidence against him had been fabricated.

SUBSTANTIAL SUMS

The family's solicitor, Raju Bhatt, commented: "We are talking about very substantial sums." Beverley Scott added that she was "very pleased" with the outcome.

● A black electrician, Ricardo McLeish, who alleged he was racially abused and beaten up by police called to evict him from a pub in Rainham, Kent, has scooped £25,000 from Kent police in an out-of-court settlement.

The BNP says: "Outlaw homosexuality now!"

Tory MP Edwina Currie (née Cohen) led the campaign for queer sex

By Simon Smith

at sixteen. Labour MP Harry Cohen said: "There is a very strong case on health education grounds for an age of consent at sixteen." Does Cohen realise that queers are responsible through their disgusting perversions for the spread of AIDS, the most life-threatening disease to afflict mankind since the bubonic plague? So much for his 'health' concerns.

QUEERS

It is no coincidence that many Lib/Lab/Con politicians are campaigning for sex with sixteen-year-old boys. Many of them are queers themselves! The Establishment is riddled with queers and paedophiles who would love to indulge their filthy practices with our children.

The BNP is committed to banning homosexuality completely — in accordance with the wishes of the vast majority of British people. The public deserves to be protected from perverted minorities such as the 'gay lobby'. The message is clear: If you want a decent future for your kids, vote BNP!

Government plans to scrap teaching of British History

UNDER the Government's latest crazy scheme for education, British history is to be scrapped and replaced by the teaching of Asian and 'Afro-centric' heritage.

In a bid to appease left-wing teachers, the great events of British history such as the battle of Waterloo, the Great Plague and Guy Fawkes' Gunpowder Plot are to be abandoned in favour of the histories of African and Asian countries such as Abyssinia, Mesopotamia and Benin.

Parent-teacher associations are said to be 'outraged' by the latest proposals to appease 'anti-racist' and extreme left-wing groups which have infiltrated the teaching unions.

GUY FAWKES is to be dropped in favour of Government plan for "Afro-Asian awareness"

VOTE BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY

East London 1993
Derek Beackon, the new BNP councillor, celebrates his victory.

The recent election victory of British National Party candidate Derek Beackon in East London changed the entire face of British politics. This victory showed that the BNP not only offers policies which many millions of British people support but now can actually win seats. A vote for the BNP now really counts. Tories, Labour and Liberal Democrats have destroyed our country and destroyed the community. British people now feel as if they are being treated as second-class citizens in their own land. Now, however, there is a new and strong alternative to these corrupt old parties. The BNP is that alternative. Only the BNP has the guts to stand up and defend the rights of white communities who have been forced to live in a multi-racial hell. Only the BNP can take all sections of the British people and rebuild the community. Only the BNP is prepared to see the British people first in jobs, housing and social welfare. Only the BNP can restore traditional values, such as respect for our old faith and our old customs. Only the BNP has the will to stamp out the lawlessness sweeping Britain. Make your voice heard. Labour and Lib Dem 'dirty tricks' campaign exposed in Tower Hamlets LABOUR and the Liberal Democrats have long had a disgraceful record of trickery, bullying and deceit.

But their recent activities in Tower Hamlets since the BNP's council victory last September are shocking even by their own standards.

Lib Dem bully-boy Peter Hughes was recently exposed by this newspaper trying to gag the press. First the council issued a writ against the News of the World for publishing an article supporting the BNP's assertion that foreign 'refugees' were being housed by the authority quicker than local whites.

SECRET

Some weeks later, our own political staff obtained secret correspondence between the council and the publishers of the East London Advertiser in which it was implied that the publishers would lose valuable contracts with the council if they continued to print 'sympathetic' articles about the BNP.

Now it is Labour's Hard Left who are using unfair methods in order to defeat the wishes of local voters.

Since BNP councillor Derek Beackon's victory last September, over SEVEN HUNDRED Asian voters have been registered on the Labour-controlled Isle of Dogs Neighbourhood. Labour's militants have also allowed a massive 'blacks only' housing development in the Millwall ward where the BNP won its first seat.

It appears that in a desperate bid to cling to power, Labour's militant Hard Left are trying to swamp the area with anti-BNP supporters. Many of the seven hundred Asians on the voting register were already on it last September. It meant that Derek Beackon's share of the white vote was nearer to fifty per cent, even though

LABOUR and the Lib Dems are trying to swamp Tower Hamlets with outsiders in a desperate bid to cling on to power, as this article in the East London Advertiser clearly shows. Eastenders know the only way to protest is by voting for the BNP

SPECIAL ADVERTISER FOCUS ON MILLWALL

'Homes for blacks' scheme sparks fresh race hate fears

FEARS are growing that a brand new housing complex for black families on the Isle of Dogs could set up an ghetto on the island. The development in Millwall Ward where a BNP councillor was elected last year has been damned by both Labour and the Liberal Democrats. One racist, a young man, said the project was "to bring black and white together". He said: "Such a scheme allows people to focus on the fact they are of a particular colour."

It will be a racial ghetto, it will be a ghetto, the BNP councillor said. He said: "Such a scheme allows people to focus on the fact they are of a particular colour."

By ULLA KLOSTER

THE BNP councillor said it was not helpful during the run up to the local elections in May. He said: "Such a scheme allows people to focus on the fact they are of a particular colour."

He said: "Such a scheme allows people to focus on the fact they are of a particular colour."

He said: "Such a scheme allows people to focus on the fact they are of a particular colour."

overall he polled thirty-four per cent.

Apart from the twenty per cent immigrant vote, Labour are counting on a rag-bag collection of communists, middle-class students and other low-life outsiders to vote against the BNP.

COMMUNIST

Shortly after the BNP victory, communist posters went up in local colleges urging students from Africa, Asia and Europe to register as local electors to "defeat the BNP."

Clearly, the political Establishment is terrified of further BNP victories — particularly in Tower Hamlets and other parts of East London. The old parties are willing to try any underhand and dishonest trick to subvert the true wishes of local white communities, in order to cling to their lucrative positions of power.

TOWER HAMLETS ELECTION FUND

TOWER Hamlets branch of the British National Party is launching a nation-wide Election Fund to finance its campaign in the coming elections to the local council in May. Ordinarily, BNP branches are left to raise their own funds to fight elections of this kind. Tower Hamlets, however, is a special case. Not only is there a very good chance that the Party's present Councillor Derek Beackon will get re-elected but there is a distinct possibility that other candidates could obtain council seats too. If the BNP actually increases its representation on the council this will cause a major national sensation. Hence the need to concentrate special efforts on this area. In addition to the Millwall Ward, Where along with Derek Beackon the Party will be fielding two other candidates, it is hoped to fight another ward in the borough, the most likely being Weaver's or Holy Trinity.

We expect all BNP supporters living in areas where the Party will be fighting seats in May to give priority to financing their local candidates. However, it is hoped that those living in areas where no local seats are being fought will appreciate the importance of continuing our success in Tower Hamlets and send money to help pay for the campaign there. All donations should be sent to: Tower Hamlets BNP, PO Box 300, Emma Street, London E2 7BZ

Legal Fund: £1,200.65 raised

To date, contributions to the British National Party Legal Fund, opened up to help in the defence of Richard Edmonds and four other activists charged with offences following the Brick Lane riot in September last year, have totalled £1,200.65. With a target of £3,000, this leaves a further £1,799.35 to be raised.

The five men, who include British Nationalist editor John Morse, are now scheduled to appear at Crown Court some time in May of this year. It seems clear that great political pressure is being applied to ensure that these men receive terms of imprisonment, quite regardless of their guilt or innocence on the charges they are facing.

It is essential that the five receive good legal representation, and for this reason we have reopened the Legal Fund that was launched in the past to deal with other cases. If it should transpire that legal expenses fall short of this figure, the balance will be set by as a reserve to help other BNP personnel needing legal help in the future.

We ask everyone to contribute generously to this fund. Please send donations to BNP Legal Fund, PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW.

Sir: In France we have watched with great interest the growing strength of the British National Party.

At last, it seems Britain is catching up with other European countries in recognising the menace of immigration.

Your situation in Britain is rather like that of France in the early 1980s, when the old political parties tried to keep immigration off the political agenda. When the Front National won its historic by-election victory at Dreux, near Paris, it had the same effect as your own victory at Millwall. Within a couple of years, the FN became a major force in French politics.

We wish you well in your current local election campaign, and hope you get more councillors elected.

Keep fighting, and keep winning! Your country's future depends on you.

Metropolitan council elections...

West Mids BNP gets stuck in!

ON SATURDAY, 26th February, a meeting was held in the West Midlands at which some fifty members of the British National Party discussed plans for the forthcoming elections in May.

The main speaker at what was essentially a local BNP branch meeting was National Organiser of the Party Richard Edmonds.

He gave a most fascinating talk on some of the experiences of his work colleagues (before he lost his job due to being a leading member of the BNP) while working in the Far East.

BRITISH SUBJECTS

What a refreshing change to be told the truth about the way foreign governments have behaved towards British subjects. Hardly ever is it reported in the press that white people working in third world countries are very often the victims of racial discrimination.

Following Richard's inspiring speech, local Elections Officer Jack Davies was invited to report on the state of readiness of West Midlands BNP for the proposed election campaigns. His report concluded: "It's all systems go!"

A record number of candidates wished to take part in this year's campaign, but in line with the Party's national strategy, it was decided that a maximum of only six candidates would stand in the region, in order to concentrate our campaigning strength.

The meeting was chaired by Birmingham BNP Organiser Keith Axon, and was also addressed by Midlands Organiser John Peacock.

The West Midlands is one of the success stories of the British National Party. Over the past couple of years, areas such as Coventry, Birmingham, Stafford and Stoke have seen increasing BNP activity in terms of recruitment and election work. During this time the BNP has launched high-profile campaigns against alien temples in Tividale (near Birmingham) and Stoke, as well as opposition to a proposed clinic for sex perverts outside Coventry. The proposal for the clinic was eventually quashed thanks to the BNP's intervention.

These campaigns won considerable local support and respect for the Party, and demonstrate how the BNP is now focusing on local issues to maximise support during elections.

The BNP in the Midlands is determined that East London won't be the only area where nationalists are getting elected. Those who attended the West Midlands election meeting were fired with enthusiasm for the task ahead, and ready to get stuck in.

The groundwork has already been laid over the past few months by teams of door-to-door canvassers and leafleters.

Between now and 5th of May, the BNP in the West Midlands will be campaigning vigorously to obtain the best possible results for our candidates. Judging from the favourable response from the public so far, the political Establishment are in for a severe shock on election day!

South Wales action report

WHILE the BNP continues to spread alarm amongst the Establishment throughout the Welsh valleys, activities are steadily extending to other areas in the region. A Vale of Glamorgan Unit was formally established on Saturday 28th January this year, when an inaugural meeting took place in Barry.

In order to boost publicity surrounding the event, details of a bogus rallying point were 'leaked' to the local media and 'Anti-Nazi League' (ANAL), with the result that about fifty of the usual primitives, heavily protected by the police, waited for some hours in Winston Square.

While the 'oppo' were shivering in sub-zero temperatures, the BNP was holding a highly successful meeting on the other side of town! Not only did ANAL spend a fruitless, frost-bitten vigil in vain, their antics provided the bonus of massive press and TV coverage for the British National Party, whose policies and recent electoral successes were reported in great detail.

Since the beginning of this year, a Gwent Unit, based in Tredegar, has also been functioning and campaigning vigorously on behalf of local whites.

Traditionally a Labour stronghold, South Wales is now in the throes of widespread recession, high employment and deprivation. A massive industrial base has been systematically destroyed, and there is a growing awareness that no redress will be forthcoming under the present system. The BNP is increasingly laying claim to the region, with every intention of making political history!

DALKEITH DAY OF ACTION

SCOTLAND has always been one of the strongest regions for BNP activity outside of London. Activists are determined to maintain the strong presence of the Party north of the border, and are continually probing the enemy's defences.

The newly-established Midlothian unit in particular has been campaigning vigorously in the past few weeks. The photo on the right shows a BNP sales team in action at the town of Dalkeith, Midlothian. On this occasion, over twenty copies of British Nationalist were sold to local shoppers, and over 400 leaflets were given out — another step towards winning further local support for the BNP.

The Day of Action in Dalkeith went ahead despite threats of violence from our communist enemies, who in the event were too scared to show up!

The BNP also has units in Hounslow & Staines, Redbridge, Newham, Barking & Dagenham, Havering, Southend-on-Sea, Isle of Sheppey, Woking, Southampton, Reading, Gloucestershire, Bristol & Bath, Bournemouth, Stevenage, Enfield & South Herts., Stourbridge, Coventry, Grantham, Derby, Ilkeston, North Wales, Bolton & Bury, Ashton-under-Lyme, Batley, York, Skipton, Tees-side, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Stirling & Alloa, Fife, Cumbernauld, Greenock, Dumbarton, Lanarkshire, Ayr, Cumnock (Ayrshire), Inverness and Belfast. If you want to make contact with any of these units, or start a new unit, please write to BNP Head Office at PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW.

B.N.P. POLICIES FOR THE ISLE OF DOGS

OPINION poll results and canvassing returns are showing support for the BNP has considerably increased since Councillor Derek Beackon's historic victory last September. There is now a strong chance that the BNP will get THREE councillors elected on the Isle of Dogs in May. If this happens, the party will have overall control of the Island's neighbourhood council, and will be able to put the following policies into action:

● HOUSING: The BNP will abolish Labour's 'ethnic quotas' scheme, and ensure that local families with strong roots on the Island will get first priority. We want to make sure local families are given the chance to be housed near to their relatives.

● OUTSIDERS: A BNP administration would refuse to house any more third world "refugees." Councils have the legal right to send homeless people from outside the borough back to where they originally came from. Any "refugee" who came via Heathrow airport, for example, could be sent back to the Borough of Hillingdon, where Heathrow is situated.

Labour and the Lib Dems claim they are legally forced to house "refugees." This is a lie. They only import immigrants to the Borough in order to win their votes. There is NO legal requirement for Tower Hamlets to accept ANY homeless people from outside the Borough.

● LAW AND ORDER: The BNP would insist that local police concentrate on preventing local crime, and leave 'anti-racism' to the left-wing politicians. It is not the job of the police to 'fight racism', but to fight CRIME. Labour's 'anti-racists' have never demonstrated on behalf of the victims of crime in the Borough, including 6 people murdered, 34 women raped and 474 mugging victims.

BNP THE ADVERTISER PHONE POLL

5 PAGE SPECIAL

More than 81 per cent support the BNP

EAST-Enders voted massively after the Advertiser's phone vote last week asking: Do you think it is right or wrong that a BNP candidate has been elected to Tower Hamlets Council?

THIS opinion poll in the East London Advertiser shows how much support for the BNP has grown since September. But the old parties are trying to mobilise communist students, immigrants and other outsiders to vote against the BNP. It is therefore important that local whites turn out in force.

When two white schoolgirls were viciously gang-raped in Catford recently, there was a deafening silence on the part of the 'anti-racist' industry.

● EDUCATION: The BNP would ban the left-wing brainwashing of our kids in local schools. We would outlaw the promotion of homosexuality, and we will stop left-wing teachers forcing our kids to chant alien songs and celebrate alien religious festivals. We would give white families the right to withdraw their children from non-Christian festivals.

● COMMUNITY: The BNP wants the Isle of Dogs to become a real 'East End Community' again. Older people will remember the 'blitz spirit', and the days when people could go out and leave their doors unlocked. We want to bring back respect for our old people, and a more caring attitude. The millions of pounds currently wasted on 'anti-racism' should be spent on hiring unemployed local folk to do useful jobs in the community, such as helping pensioners with their shopping, or repairing their homes.

Tyndall to fight Dagenham

BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY leader John Tyndall will be contesting the parliamentary by-election in the Dagenham (Essex) constituency scheduled for June 9th.

The election has been occasioned by the coming retirement of the Labour member for the constituency Brian Gould, who is quitting politics and returning to his native New Zealand.

If, as expected, the BNP does well in the local government elections on May 5th, there should be enormous interest in this by-election. It is some time since such a by-election has fallen in a constituency suitable for the BNP to fight, but Dagenham is definitely one that falls well within the party's capability. The area lies on the fringe of East London. It has a very active local BNP branch, and it is well within reach of activists from other areas in both London and Essex.

The party will be putting the biggest possible effort into fighting Dagenham, and there will be mass mobilisations of activists for canvassing and other election activities. On weekends the party intends to recruit election workers from other parts of Britain for this purpose.

BNP fighting elections all over England

FOR obvious reasons, this month's special election edition of British Nationalist has concentrated mainly on the BNP's campaign in Tower Hamlets, and more specifically, on the Isle of Dogs.

If the Party succeeds in getting three candidates elected on the Island, it will create a national sensation even greater than that which followed the election of Cllr Derek Beackon. The BNP would control a housing budget of £23million, and would be able to demonstrate that it is fit to run a local council. This would be the first step towards demonstrating that the Party was fit to govern the whole of Britain. At the moment, there is every indication that the BNP may indeed achieve this objective.

CANDIDATES

However, it is also the case that the BNP is fielding over twenty more candidates up and down the country in the current round of metropolitan elections.

In addition to the three wards being contested in Tower Hamlets, the Party is also fielding candidates in the London Boroughs of Barking & Dagenham, Redbridge, Newham, Sutton, Greenwich, Hounslow and Hillingdon.

There are also BNP candidates standing in Broxbourne (Herts), Sunderland, Stoke-on-Trent, Calderdale (West Yorks), Birmingham, Coventry, Wolverhampton, Walsall, Sandwell (Dudley) and Rochdale. There is a possibility that candidates may be fielded in Blackburn and/or Dewsbury, though this has not been finalised as we go to press.

STRATEGY

The BNP's current strategy is to concentrate the election effort into just a few wards, in order to maximise votes. We are no longer in the position of having to put candidates up simply to gain publicity, as Derek Beackon's victory last September ensured the whole country is already aware of our existence.

For the same reason, the Party does not need to utilise high profile activities of 'street theatre' such as public meetings or demonstrations. The public will judge us now solely on our electoral performance.

Opinion poll soundings by the Establishment have consistently shown support for BNP policies has considerably increased since September.

The metropolitan elections are the first major test of the BNP's electoral credibility since Millwall. If the Party achieves some good results this time, it will put us in a credible position to fight the General Election whenever that comes.

The Establishment is clearly going to get a severe shock when the election results roll in!

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the Common Market
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum possible self-sufficiency in food production.
- Rejection of both the poll tax and its substitute, the new 'property tax', and a return to the old rates system, though with fairer rebates allowing for differences in income and in the numbers occupying properties.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people – the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO, closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain, the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish Agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- Repeal of the laws permitting homosexuality and abortion (except where the latter is the result of rape or necessary on medical grounds), the wiping out of AIDS and a return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.
